causes for not coming home. His drinking got worse. When my brother told me he saw Pete with another girl I almost died.

Last week Pete suggested I go back to my folks because he'd go nuts in our tiny apartment with a baby crying all the time.

I can't understand what happened to change everything. When we were going together he couldn't stand to be away from me for a single day. Now I have no feelings left for him because he's treated me so rotten. No advice, please, Ann. I didn't listen to you last year when you said not to do it.—SWEET 17
